The New Suit.

The country boy had come to visit his city friends, and before leaving home his mother had spent much time on his wardrobe, but he soon saw that things were not quite right.

At a small party given in his honor he remained firmly fixed in a corner. At last his hostess, thinking to make him feel more at ease, said: "How nice you look, William! who made your suit?" From the depths came the reply: "Mother, blame it!"

Acid-Stomach Makes Millions Old Before Their Time

What is it that robs so many people of their vitality, youth and good looks—makes them all so decrepit, years before their time? Some say it is rheumatism that is ailing them. Others say it is indigestion. Others are bilious. Life is a burden to millions of dyspeptics. Severe headache, extreme nervousness, insomnia, mental depression, melancholia, anemia, dizziness, vertigo, heart and chest pains, constipation, etc., claim other multitudes. Sometimes these people are downright sick. More frequently they are just weak, shaky and unwell, not knowing exactly what is the matter with them. Nearly always they resort to medicines of one kind or another in the hope of getting back their health and strength. And nearly always they are disappointed, because medicines don't build strength unless they set the stomach free from acidity, allowing it to take full strength out of the food eaten.

What is it that causes teeth to decay? Dentists say—acid mouth—that the acid formed by the fermentation of small particles of food lodged in the teeth is powerful enough to eat right through the hard enamel. An acid-stomach presents a similar condition. Excess acid retards digestion. Food in the stomach rots and ferments, causing pain. Gases affect the heart action. The intestine becomes the breeding place for countless millions of deadly germs or toxic poisons. These poisons are carried by the blood into every part of the system. The famous scientist, Metchnikoff, said: "If the system could be kept free from these toxic germs, people might easily live a hundred years or more."

The only safe thing to do is to rid the stomach of its excess acid at once. A way has been found in the wonderful preparation, called RATONIC—a compressed compound that absorbs the excess acid and carries it away through the bowels. Thousands upon thousands now know of RATONIC and its amazing power to clean out the excess acid and leave the stomach sweet, cool and strong—giving it a chance to properly digest food so that you get full strength of what you eat and in this way help Nature build up vigorous health, strength and vitality to take the place in a few days, of sickness, lameness, weakness.

RATONIC is worth your trial. Its possibilities for restoring health, vigor, energy and vitality are beyond telling. In mere words—you must "just try it."

RATONIC is absolutely guaranteed, so get a big 50c box from your druggist. If it does not help you your money will be refunded. If your druggist does not keep RATONIC, send your name and address to the Rationale Remedy Company, 1018 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., and they will at once mail you a 50c box and you can send them the money for it after you receive it.

Kaiser's Henchmen Unable to Line Up a Following.

RICH MEN SERVE IN THE WAR

German Agents Fail to Disprove Fact That Wealthy Cannot Buy Exemptions—Government Not Seeking Foreign Markets.

(From the Committee on Public Information, Washington, D. C.)
By HARVEY O'HIGGINS,
Associate Chairman, Committee on Public Information.

(This is the third article in Mr. O'Higgins' dealing with the propaganda of the enemy in our midst.)

In two previous articles on the German "whispering propaganda," some account was given of how the German agents are endeavoring to divide us from our allies and to arouse domestic differences among ourselves by means of various lies and rumors that arouse religious animosities and increase race problems and promote an agrarian sentiment against the war. But the attempt to divide us against ourselves does not end there.

The leaders of a section of the Socialist party here as in Italy and in Russia, are attempting to do the Kaiser's work, and are obtaining German support in it. They are trying to divide the country in a class quarrel that would leave us as helpless to resist the German military autocracy as the Russians are. This section of socialists was first organized as a political party in America by German exiles. They have always been led by German sympathizers. It has been a rule among them that a man is not a socialist unless he pays dues to the party leaders, accepts all the party nominees of those leaders without question, subscribes to every plank of the party platform, and votes only a straight ticket under the party emblem. He did these things or he was expelled. That is a Prussian idea of organized servility and unquestioning obedience. It has succeeded in Germany, but it has never succeeded here.

At the outbreak of the war in Europe the Prussian government, by means of false news and distorted dispatches, made the German people believe that their country had been invaded by Russia and attacked by France, and for a time all the German socialists supported their government's war of imperial conquest, believing that it was a war of self-defense. Since then the independent socialists in Germany have learned that they were deceived. They are now fighting the German government in Germany as the independent socialists are fighting the German government here, under the leadership of men like John Spargo and Charles Edward Russell.

Germany's Plan to Squeeze.
Soon after the war broke out a member of the German reichstag named David made a speech in which he said: "Germany must squeeze her enemies with a pair of pincers; namely, the military pincer and the pacifist pincer. The German armies must continue to fight vigorously whilst the German socialists encourage and stimulate pacifism among Germany's enemies." It is upon this stimulation of pacifism in America that our Prussian socialists have been most busily engaged. They have been recently denounced by the Social Democratic League of America and the Jewish Socialist League, under the leadership of John Spargo, J. G. Phelps Stokes, William Edlin and Henry L. Stobodin.

The work of our pro-German socialists has been nullified by the unjust terms of German peace forced upon the Russians and by the continued German invasion of Russia since peace was signed. The same events have greatly strengthened the loyal support of the war by American socialists. Consequently there seems to be now no danger of a successful bolshevik campaign in this country procured by German agents. We have passed that danger point as the British have passed it. The independent socialists in all countries are fighting the Kaiser and his commercial war of imperial conquest. And when the pro-German socialist in this country asks, "Why do you blame German socialists for supporting their government and yet blame American socialists for not supporting their government?" the answer is, "Because in both cases they are wrong; in both cases they are fighting against freedom and democracy in support of military conquest and autocratic rule."

Another German Trick.
In our western states another sort of class cleavage is being widened by German sympathizers. There, for a decade past, a political struggle has been proceeding between reformers and corruptionists. In many states the reformers have won. They have broken the political bosses and ousted their henchmen. When the government boards at Washington called for volunteers in the work of organizing the trade and industry of the country many of the defeated political enemies of the western commonwealths volunteered for service and were accepted. The assignment of such men to war work has been used "to give the war a black eye." It is argued that the dark powers which so long exploited the West are "running the war." It is hinted that the government at Washington is innocently under their control. And German agents and German sympathizers are using that argument and giving that hint.

It was inevitable that some discredited politicians should find their way into the ranks of a volunteer army of war workers so hastily assembled. Such men would be eager for the chance to rehabilitate themselves. They might even be genuinely loyal to the country at large, though they have never been loyal to the best interests of their home communities. It is as absurd for anyone to turn against the war because of the participation of these men as it would be absurd for him to withdraw from the trenches if he found old political enemies serving beside him. It is his business to see that political crooks in war work are watched as carefully as suspected renegades would be watched in camp. Meanwhile it is a work in aid of the enemy to let suspicion of such men weaken support of the government in its prosecution of the war.

Not a Rich Man's War.
It is German agents, of course, who are most eager to arouse the feeling that this is "a rich man's war." They spread that lie in spite of the fact that the rich cannot buy exemptions from conscription in this war as they could in our Civil war; in spite of the fact that no one can hire a substitute to take his place in the trenches, as one could in the Civil war; in spite of the fact that the only exemptions are allowed to poor men with dependents or to workmen in vital industries; in spite of the fact that the war taxes fall most heavily on the rich, and the measures of price control are designed to prevent them from exploiting the poor, and excess-profits taxes absorb the fruits of any such exploitation.

And it is the German agents who are encouraging the western feeling that this is "a business man's war," because when the government called for volunteers to help organize the business of the country on a war basis the business men were most free to respond and most fitted by experience to fill administrative positions. There are innumerable rumors that some of these men are taking advantage of their official knowledge in order to make fortunes for themselves. It would be the miracle of the world if no such betrayers of public faith were ever found among them. And doubtless in this country, as in other countries, congressional investigations will discover the occasional grafter and dishonest administrator. But it is none the less true here, as abroad, that the great body of business men who are serving the government are as loyal self-sacrificing as anyone who is behind the fighting lines.

Not in War for Markets.
Recently, in the White House, President Wilson was asked by one of our most famous financiers to appoint a commission that should safeguard our foreign trade during the war and see to it that new foreign markets were made ready for our peaceful penetration after the war. And the president replied that the government would not appoint such a commission; that this country was not fighting to obtain foreign markets; that the struggle for foreign markets had been one of the predominant causes of the conflict among the European nations, and it had been most difficult to make those nations believe that America was not secretly inspired by a similar greed for spheres of influence and "a place in the sun"; that America was not waging a commercial war or seeking any selfish advantage; and the government would never appoint a commission that might, by its mere existence, misrepresent the motives of our people in their support of the nations fighting to defend the freedom of the world.

That pronouncement has been made, again and again, in the president's public utterances. He has consistently acted upon it in his war policy. And the statement that the war is "a rich man's war" or "a business man's war" is as deliberate a lie as any that the enemy has invented in order to confuse our people and divide them in their allegiance.

Libels on the Red Cross.
A campaign of mischievous rumors against the Red Cross is still under way in spite of the circumstantial disproof that has been given the falsehoods through the society's agents everywhere. New rumors, new slanders upon Red Cross work and Red Cross officials, are put out simultaneously in widely separated parts of the country in a way that proves preconcert and direction. All these fabrications are designed to discourage loyal citizens from giving money or service to the work of the society. That is the purpose of the lies about Red Cross sweaters sold by department stores; about enormous salaries paid to Red Cross officials, who are really working without salary; about Red Cross sweaters being used at the front to "back guns in" about the contributed knitted goods being unraveled abroad by peasants who wanted the yarn, not the manufactured article, etc., endlessly. A list of such false reports, with their refutations, would require a pamphlet by themselves. The same is true of the libels upon the food administration that aim to arouse hostility to the government's measures of food conservation. Both campaigns have been unsuccessful. The loyal support of the work of the Red Cross and of the food administration has been one of the most remarkable achievements of America at war in the eyes of our allies. German propaganda here has wholly failed as it has failed against the Liberty loans.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 24

JACOB AND ESAU RECONCILED.

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 33:1-11.
GOLDEN TEXT—A soft answer turneth away wrath.—Proverbs 15:1.
DEVOTIONAL READING—Psalms 46:1-3.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Genesis 32:1-28.

From Bethel, Jacob went to Padan-aram to his mother's people. Here he served Laban for twenty years—fourteen years for his wives and six years for certain wages. In his dealings with Laban he finds his match—two schemers get together—"diamond cuts diamond."

I. Jacob Departs for Canaan (31:1-21).
The time had come for Jacob to go back to his kindred in the land of Canaan. The Lord instructed him so to do (v. 13). Though going forward under the direction of God, his Jacoban leave of Laban, when Laban realized the situation he went in hot pursuit, but God appeared unto him in a dream and warned him against any act of violence toward Jacob. They formed a compact and Laban returned home.

II. Jacob on the Way (chapter 32.)
Laban's return freed Jacob from the enemy who was pursuing him from behind, but he faced a more formidable one in the person of Esau.

1. Jacob meeting the angels (v. 1).
Two camps of angels met him to give him the assurance that God would be with him according to his promise. Notwithstanding this, he continued to scheme. He sent a deputation with a message of good cheer to Esau.

2. Jacob praying (vv. 9-12).
Esau made no reply to Jacob's message, but went forward with an army of men, four hundred strong, to meet Jacob. Jacob is in great distress, therefore he casts himself upon God in prayer. This is a fine specimen of effectual prayer. It is short, direct, and earnest. (1) He reminds God of his command issued for his return, and also of the covenant promise (31:3). Surely God would not issue a command and then leave him in such a strait. (2) He pleads God's promise as to his personal safety (v. 9, cf. Genesis 28:15, 31:33). In our praying we should definitely plead God's promises in his word, on the ground of covenant relationship in Christ. (3) Confesses unworthiness (v. 10). In this he shows the proper spirit of humility. (4) Presents definite petitions (v. 11). He lays before the Lord the definite request to be delivered from the wrath of Esau.

3. The angel of Jehovah wrestling with Jacob (32:24-32).

In God's school of discipline, Jacob is making some improvement, but still he is under the sway of self-will and self-trust. Though he had laid the matter definitely before the Lord, he thought that his scheming would render God some assistance. Accordingly, he sent presents ahead to appease the anger of Esau. While journeying along, a man met him and wrestled with him, but Jacob knew not who he was. Perhaps he thought that Esau had pounced upon him in the dark. He exerted every ounce of strength in what he thought was the struggle for his very life. The morning was approaching, and still the wrestlers continued, Jacob not knowing it was Jehovah manifest in human form. This is the second crisis in Jacob's life. He did not dare to enter the promised land under the control of his self-sufficiency; his selfish will must be broken; his Jacob-nature must be changed. God humbled him by dislocating his thigh. When thus humbled, he quit wrestling and clung to God. He got the blessing when he, conscious of his weakness, laid hold of God.

4. Jacob gets a new name (v. 28).
He was no longer Jacob, the supplanter; but Israel, a prince of God. His new name was given him after he had a new nature. He came face to face with God, and face to face with himself, and fought the battle to a finish. We must have the new nature before we can enter the place of blessing. Jacob came to realize that he had been struggling with God, for he called the place "Peniel," which means "face to face with God."

III. Jacob Meets Esau (33:1-11).
God had evidently wrought with Esau, for when Jacob approached him the sting of bitterness was gone. It was not Jacob's scheming that removed Esau's anger, but the action of the Supernatural upon his heart! At Jabbok Jacob got right with God, so when he met Esau it was an easy matter to get right with him. When we are right with God it is an easy matter to get right with our brother.

In This Life.
We hear much of love to God, Christ spoke much of love to man. We make a great deal of peace with heaven. Christ made much of peace on earth. Religion is not a strange or added thing, but the inspiration of the secular life, the breathing of an eternal spirit through this temporal world.

Man and His Faith.
Faith is the substratum of life; so that a man will be as he believes, and will believe as he lives.—Wm. M. Taylor.

REGULAR TOLL FROM HENS

German Systematic in Their Demands for "Biddy's" Products—General Requisition of Foodstuffs.

The German method of securing food is shown in the regulations of the Bavarian egg supply office. By this regulation, poultry keepers are required to deliver to the government 40 eggs for each hen kept. The 1918 quota was due in September, at a fixed price of four cents per egg. By this regulation the population when food products fail to reach the markets in sufficient quantities by voluntary sales. Inasmuch as the supply of grain has been greatly reduced, and the number of hens as well, the owner of a small flock will doubtless long for the privilege Americans have of doing what they like with their own eggs.

In Hungary, for the fourth time this year, the food minister ordered a general requisition of foodstuffs from consumers and producers alike. Except for a sufficient home supply to last until the first part of August, the following principal foods were seized: Wheat, oats, maize, potatoes, millet and fats.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and maybe despondent; it makes anyone so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney liver and bladder medicine will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Poughkeepsie, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase the medium and large size bottles at all drug stores. Adv.

People who marry for money usually live to regret that they didn't learn a trade instead.

HEALTH TALK

Spanish Influenza or Grip
BY DR. LEE H. SMITH.

An old enemy is with us again, and whether we fight a German or a germ, we must put up a good fight, and not be afraid. The influenza runs a very brief course when the patient is careful, and if we keep the system in good condition and throw off the poisons which tend to accumulate within our bodies, we can escape the disease. Remember these three C's—a clean mouth, a clean skin, and clean bowels. To carry off poisons from the system and keep the bowels loose, daily doses of a pleasant laxative should be taken. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloë, root of jalap, and is called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Hot lemonade should be used freely if attacked by a cold, and the patient should be put to bed after a hot mustard foot-bath.

To prevent the attack of bronchitis or pneumonia and to control the pain, Anurie tablets should be obtained at the drug store, and one given every two hours, with lemonade. The Anurie tablets were first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and, as they flush the bladder and cleanse the kidneys, they carry away much of the poisons and the uric acid.

It is important that broths, milk, buttermilk, ice-cream and simple diet be given regularly to strengthen the system and increase the vital resistance. The fever is diminished by the use of the Anurie tablets, but in addition, the forehead, arms and hands may be bathed with water (tepid) in which a tablespoonful of salaratus has been dissolved in a quart. After an attack of grip or pneumonia to build up and strengthen the system, obtain at the drug store a good iron tonic, called "Ironite" Tablets, or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Don't Belittle That Backache—Stop It.

Kidney and Bladder Sufferers Regretfully Recall Their Neglect of First Symptom.

Use Caution—Get Dodd's. If kidney disease attacked suddenly as does Appendicitis or a fever, you would be forced to bed immediately. But it doesn't—its process is slow, destructive and fatal.

You can't afford to disobey nature's first warnings—slightest backache, throbbing pain thru loins, stiffness in stooping or lifting. Take heed immediately of these as well as spots appearing before or puffiness under the eyes, rheumatic pains, nightly arising.

Thousands upon thousands have been relieved in the past 40 years by using Dodd's—they quickly tone and revive sickly kidneys. Be sure your druggist gives you Dodd's—flat, round box with three D's in the name—for diseased, disordered, deranged kidneys. No similar name article will do. Satisfaction or your money back.
